WELCOME!

*As for man, his days are like grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
For the wind passes over it, and it is gone; and its place remembers it no more.
---Psalm 103:15*

Hymn 110 vv. 1-4 Across the Sky the Shades of Night

OLD TESTAMENT: Psalm 90 A Psalm of Moses
The Lord's strength and the sinner's frailty

P: O Lord, You have been our dwelling place
C: In all generations.

P: Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever You had formed the earth and the world,

C: Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

P: You turn man to destruction,

C: And say, "Return, O children of men."

P: For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it is past,
C: And like a watch in the night.

P: You carry them away like a flood;

C: They are like a sleep.

P: In the morning they are like grass which grows up, in the morning it flourishes and grows up;

C: In the evening it is cut down and withers.

P: For we have been consumed by Your anger,

C: And by Your wrath we are terrified.

P: You have set our iniquities before You,

C: Our secret sins in the light of Your countenance.

P: For all our days have passed away in Your wrath,

C: We finish our years like a sigh.

P: The days of our lives are seventy years ["three score years and ten" -KJV] ;

C: And if by reason of strength they are eighty years,
