WELCOME!

“You meant evil against me, but God meant it for good; in order to bring it about, as it is this day, to save many people alive.” [Joseph to his brothers.]

---Genesis 50:20

ORDER OF SERVICE: Supplement, page 12,

HYMNS 265 Thine Honor Save, O Christ Our Lord!

EPISTLE: EPHESIANS 6:10-17 Paul was concerned that his imprisonment and personal suffering for Christ might discourage the Ephesians. He prayed that the Holy Spirit would open the Ephesians' hearts to grasp the vastness of Christ's love. Sufferings in the lives of Christians are truly for our glorious benefit. Be strong and rooted in Christ!

Psalms 51, p. 28: “Have Mercy upon Me, O God!”

GOSPEL: John 4:46-54 A nobleman, who was likely an official of King Herod, sought out Jesus to heal his son who was at the point of death. . Jesus led the nobleman to declare that Jesus was not just a “wonderworker,” but the Lord of forgiveness and mercy, who gives life. The nobleman trusted in Jesus' word “Your son lives!” and departed for home. As he was going, his servants met him and reported, “Your son lives!” The fever had left him at the same hour Jesus said, Your son lives!

APOSTLES' CREED

Hymn 345 Jesus Lover of My Soul!

SERMON: GENESIS 37:18-28

DEALING WITH BROTHERS

Now when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. Then they said to one another, "Look, this dreamer is coming! Come therefore, let us now kill him and cast him into some pit; and we shall say, Some wild beast has devoured him. We shall see what will become of his dreams!"

But Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands, and said, "Let us not kill him." And Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness, and do not lay a hand on him"—that he might deliver him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

So it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the tunic of many colors that was on him. Then they took him and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

And they sat down to eat a meal. Then they lifted their eyes and looked, and there was a company of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead with their camels, bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry them down to Egypt. So Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh." And his brothers listened. Then Midianite traders passed by; so the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

"HOW CAN I SUPPORT THIS EFFORT?"

Closing Hymn

To God Be the Glory!

1) To God be the glory; great things He has done!
He so loved the world that He gave us His Son,
Who yielded His life an atonement for sin
And opened the life-gate that all may go in!

REFRAIN:

*Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear His voice!
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the people rejoice!
Oh, come to the Father through Jesus the Son
And give Him the glory—great things He has done!*

2) Oh, perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
To ev'ry believer the promise of God;
The vilest offender who simply believes,
That moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

REFRAIN:

3) Great things He has taught us, great things He has done,
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son!
But purer and higher and greater will be
Our joy and our wonder when Jesus we see.
