WELCOME!

“Now it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? So I answered, Who are You, Lord? And He said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.” -----Acts 22;6-8 Saul telling of his conversion.

ORDER OF SERVICE:

Supplement, page 12, without Holy Communion.

HYMN 543 When Streaming from the Eastern Skies!

EPISTLE: 2 Peter 1:16-21 Peter spoke of Jesus' majesty; he himself had witnessed it on the mountain of Transfiguration. Peter saw Jesus' glory, and he heard the Father speak. Indeed, Jesus was the Son of God! Prophets of the Old Testament had likewise given witness that God's Promised One and Savior would be the true and glorious God. Heed these witnesses!

PSALM 121, p. 42 “I Will Lift Up My Eyes to the Hills!”

GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9 Several weeks before His death and resurrection, Jesus displayed His glory to Peter, James and John. In divine brilliance and majesty, He spoke with Old Testament Moses and Elijah about His death. God the Father also spoke from heaven with words of approval. Indeed, the humble and lowly Jesus about to die on a cross was “transformed.” He truly was the glorious Son of God and Savior of the world! Pay attention to Him!

APOSTLES' CREED

Hymn 720 Oh, Wondrous Type! Oh, Vision Fair! (melody 63)

SERMON: 1 KINGS 19 : 12–15, 18-21

DOWN FROM THE MOUNTAIN OF GLORY

And after [the wind and] the earthquake, [there was] a fire; but the LORD was not in the [wind, or the earthquake, or] fire. And after the fire, a still small voice. So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. Suddenly a voice came to him, and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

And he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life.” Then the LORD said to him: “Go, return on your way. . . . Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle on him. And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go back again, for what have I done to you?” So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and boiled their flesh, using the oxen’s equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant.
